

Hudson Coatstand

Simple, solid style
and bold presence.

Emanating a solid, dependable presence, the Hudson Coat Stand is named after Mrs Hudson, the patient and reliable landlady at 221B Baker Street, home to Sherlock Holmes and Dr. John Watson. Hudson comes in a striking combination of solid oak or walnut with black or white folded steel, standing out from the crowd regardless of whether it's empty or covered in coats.

Thanks to Hudson's simple style, it pairs perfectly with other products in the NaughtOne range. Its residential appeal means it also sits easily with other furniture in working, hospitality, public or residential environments. Simply constructed of solid hardwood legs and folded steel rails, the Hudson Coatstand is the epitome of functional beauty.

At the end of its long life, you can simply return Hudson to NaughtOne via our Take-Back Programme, and we'll ensure its materials make it to the right place.
